Sacrament of Reconciliation:

As well as the times given before the Vigil Mass on a Saturday, Canon Paul is very happy for anyone to make an appointment with him, to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

First Holy Communion Will take place on Saturday 18th June at the Vigil Mass. Cake and refreshments will be available to celebrate, in the garden, after mass—weather permitting. The Piety Stall at the rear of the church has a large selection of cards and gifts available for those wishing to commemorate first Holy Communion candidates. There are also cards and gifts available for other occasions.

Covid 19 Guidance:

In line with advice from the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales and the Diocese of Hexham & Newcastle, it was agreed at the Pastoral Parish Council that we should follow their recommendations concerning the wearing of face coverings. Those who wish to wear a face covering may do so during the celebration of Mass. When participating with Congregational Singing parishioners are encouraged to wear a face mask.

Summer FUN and Barbecue – Sunday 24th July at 2pm:

Canon Paul and the PPC are planning a fun afternoon for the Parish and would like your help with the following: -

1. We will have a Tombola stall and a box will be available at the back of church for any donations.
2. Anyone with a large barbecue, who would be willing to lend it for the function please see Canon Paul or Greg Mearman. More details will follow soon.

Thank You for any help you can give.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for June:

We pray for Christian families throughout the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and grow in holiness in their daily lives.

Cycle of Prayer for Summer:

During the Summer period we are asked to pray for the following—A Deeper Understanding between Christians and Jews; Those Who Suffer Persecution, Oppression and Denial of Human Rights; Europe; Human Life; Seafarers.

A note from Canon Paul....

"I would like to thank everyone for their kind words and good wishes following the announcement last week of my impending move to Hartlepool. My time with you, whilst short, has been joyous and rewarding and while we await an announcement as to my replacement, I look forward to the remainder of my time with you over the summer months.

When a priest is ordained he promises obedience to the Bishop. I know that Bishop Robert, who ultimately has responsibility for the whole diocese, has asked me to accept this new and challenging assignment because he recognises in me the God given gifts needed for task at hand. In accepting this assignment willingly, I am not only being faithful to the promise of obedience that I made some 24 years ago but also accept it, believing that the Holy Spirit continues to send God's workers where they are needed most.

Please continue to keep me in your prayers as I do you."

With thanks

Canon Paul

Readings for Corpus Christi:

First Reading – Genesis 14:18-20

Second Reading – 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Gospel – Luke 9:11-17

Quotes of the week:

"A friend is a loved one who awakens your life in order to free the wild possibilities within you."

John O'Donohue

"You must not hide the gifts God has given, but use them in his service."

Cornelia Connelly

Canon Paul, people say one person can't make a difference in the world...

but we know that isn't true, because we've seen the difference you make in the lives of those around you.

Please continue to support Canon Paul in his pastoral work and remember him in your prayers.

Prayer For The SYNOD. We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With you alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts. Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

THIS SUNDAYS READING

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY—YEAR C

First Reading:                      Before the earth came into being, Wisdom was born                      Proverbs 8:22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works. From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being. The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust.

When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries – and the waters will not invade the shore – when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

Response: How great is your name, O Lord our God, through all the earth!

Second Reading:                      The love of God has been poured into our hearts                      Romans 5:1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit., the God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!!

Gospel Reading:                      The Spirit of truth will lead you to the complete truth                      John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.

But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.

Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said:

All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.’

SCHOOL NEWS:

Liturgical Prayer

This week, we reflected on the events of Pentecost and how we might be strengthened in our mission, by the allowing the Holy Spirit to work through us.

New Starters

On Thursday, the parents of children joining our school in September visited, for an information evening. Eight pupils will join our Reception Class in September and they will make a number of visits to the school over the next few weeks, by way of preparation.
